- Guests displaying signs of intoxication
- Anyone outside function area (within the boundaries of clients property / venue, if outside venue the allocated area authorised by the local council)
- Anyone outside the pre-agreed times

Should any of the above apply, guest/s will be refused (further) service of alcohol, and you as the host will be informed of the situation. It is also an offence for anyone to obtain or try to obtain alcohol for a juvenile.

Under the Liquor Control Act juveniles are permitted on licensed premises provided they are under the constant supervision of a responsible adult.

The Liquor Control Act defines a responsible adult as;

- Parent / Step parent
- Loco parentis (someone providing food, clothing & shelter)
- Legal Guardian
- Spouse

For large functions, and certain outdoor locations, it may be a requirement of the Director of Liquor Licensing that Cherry's Catering employs Crowd Controllers. The number of crowd controllers required is set by the Director - please be advised that the charge of which will be incurred by you, the client. Security personnel will monitor the behaviour of guests, and if instructed, are permitted to remove guests for behavioural reasons.
